

STATEMENT OF RELEASE

I, _____, in my use of archival or manuscript materials in the Library System of the University of Alaska, agree to assume the responsibility for clearing copyright and literary rights and obtaining any necessary authorization for any of the material which might appear in published form in the future. I further agree to hold harmless the University of Alaska from any liability for copyright infringement or violations of literary rights in my use of this material (should infringement arise now or in the future), together with costs of defense.

I understand any copying of archives and manuscript materials is for my convenience only, and I therefore agree that I will not transfer or deposit any copies or reproduced manuscript material in any other library, archives, or manuscript depository.

I further agree to give credit to the Archives and Special Collections Department, Consortium Library, of the University of Alaska Anchorage or any other unit of the University of Alaska, as appropriate, in the direct or indirect use of any copied archives and manuscripts materials for, or in, publications(s).

I further agree that no commercial use of the materials shall be made without the written consent of the University of Alaska Anchorage, after payment of any required fee.
